

Turning Pain to Power: Women Rising in the Congo

The Seminar on *Intersectionality:
Identity, Power & Law*
at

presents

EVE ENSLER is a playwright, performer, activist and founder of V-Day, the global movement to end violence against women and girls. She is the award winning author of the Vagina Monologues.

Distinguished Guest Lecturer Eve Ensler

Monday, September 21, 2009
5:00-7:00PM

Columbia Law School
Jerome Green Hall—Room 104

Free and Open to the Public
RSVP to syeh@law.columbia.edu

“For nearly 12 years an invisible war has ravaged this beloved, beleaguered country. Over five million dead, hundreds of thousands of women and girls raped and sexually tortured in the most unimaginable ways, 800,000 internally displaced since January 2009 and close to 350,000 forced to flee to neighboring countries....There has been no accountability for these horrific crimes, no justice, hardly a mention in the world press.” Come learn more about these unspeakable atrocities as we explore the issue further.

Moderated by
Prof. Kimberlé Crenshaw

Co-sponsored by

