DEMOCRACY DEFENDERS -- SUMMER SEMINAR AND SUMMIT

Telling Our Stories Skills Workshops

As we see daily attacks on our democracy, it is more important than ever that we can tell our own stories, document our lives, and express ourselves in art! If you want to learn how telling your story can create change in your campus, community, and social media circles, Democracy Defenders Skills Workshops are for you.

Hands-on practical training will enhance your storytelling through coaching from experts in podcasting, social media & Tiktoking, activism, and media training & op-ed writing.
